

Rifle Camp Park – Woodland Park

October 22nd (Saturday) -- Meet @ 3:30PM

3.3 miles Loop – EASY – Sits on the ridgeline of Garret Mountain, a section of First Watchung Mountain. The area of Rifle Camp Park served as a location where Washington's troops could observe British movements during the Revolutionary War in 1780. The name 'Rifle Camp' comes from the fact that Major James Parr's rifle corps camped for a short time in the vicinity of the Great Notch, just to the south of what would eventually become the park
